DVAR CHIZUK

Parshas Vayigash

We have just finished celebrating Chanukah and although it is history for this year, there is one very important message that should remain.

Chanukah stands for chanu, chaf hay – they rested on the 25th. Most wars and battles generally memorialize the battle that took place. The great battle of Gettysburg, or Yorktown or Iwu Jima. The name is about the battle not the outcome! We yidden look at war much differently. It is not about being victorious, it is about the goal. War is not a goal in and of itself, it is the result that we look for. For us, the battle of the chashmonaim was about being able to rest and rededicate ourselves to Torah true values; keeping Mitzvos and learning Torah in a safe and peaceful atmosphere. Hence the Yom tov is commemorated with the name of our final goal – resting on the 25th of Kislev!

To segue into another Chanukah minhag, let's talk about "Chanukah gelt". There is a Minhag that on Chanukah we give money as a present. What is the meaning of this? I would suggest based on the concept put forward in the first paragraph; we are being taught a similar lesson. In the outside world, accumulation of wealth is a goal unto itself. People spend their entire life in the pursuit of money and riches. For what, you may ask? As they say, you can't take it with you! Our concept of money is quite different. Money is a means to our goal of Avodas Hashem. It is not the gathering of wealth that is important but rather the use of wealth as a resource in our continued growth in Yiddishkeit.

May the lights of Chanukah remain with us throughout the entire year to focus us on our true goal in life, Avodas Hashem.

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC RESOURCES & ENRICHMENT @ TA

Please Help LAMDEINU

At TA, we take great pride in our commitment to an educational model that addresses the individual needs of every student. TA is dedicated to providing as many educational and support tools as possible to enable each student to grow and thrive in his learning and Yiddishkeit.

All of those support services and programs are part of LAMDEINU @ TA, and we are excited to announce a special campaign on December 29th and 30th!

When a particular talmid needs extra attention from a teacher or is having trouble keeping up in class, LAMDEINU is there for support. LAMDEINU provides extra reading or Kriah support for hundreds of TA students, special education services in our Learning Centers and/or special classrooms, and collaboration and partnerships with outside educational support services to ensure the success of every talmid. Chances are, your child has been a beneficiary of LAMDEINU @ TA in one form or another.

As much as TA has been able to accomplish with LAMDEINU, there is more work to be done. More students need services, and there are more services that are needed. TA must answer the call to do more.

Please join us for our special LAMDEINU campaign, December 29th and 30th
